

DESIGNERS

LOOKING FOR DESIGN PROFESSIONALS &
STUDENTS FOR E-MENTORING PROGRAM

www.accesstodesign.org

Access to Design Professions is seeking professionals from the design fields to E-Mentor design-interested students who have a disability (apparent or non-apparent) and wish to learn more about the innovative, progressive and exciting world of design.

Students with at least a high school degree who have a disability and are interested in learning about the design fields- ADP offers an E-mentoring program connecting you to professionals in an online supportive correspondence.
